

Since 1955, the Olin Mott Tire Company has been well known in the city of Tampa for its dedication to the support and sponsorship of community outreach programs. Employees are considered extended family and greet everyone with the company slogan, "It's a great day at Olin Mott!" Four generations of the Mott family will share in the proven approach that has brought the company renowned local success, growing to six Tampa-area locations and expanding the original location from 5,000 square feet to a massive 50,000-square-foot business complex that serves as company headquarters. Pictured above is the North Florida Avenue location in 1962, which still operates today. In the photograph below, also taken in 1962, company employees are, from left to right, Dutch Wingert, Bill Ballard, Olin Mott, Harry Hudson, Carmen Cacamo, Terry Moore, and Henry Clayburn.

