Heartbreak On The Hill For Tim Tremblay And Scheuring Speed Sports

Aurora, Minn. (March 21, 2017) Tim Tremblay was two laps away from his most dominant main event performance of year when a broken drive belt left him stranded on the hillside as the entire field of Pro Open competitors raced by. The catastrophic turn of events erased the 28 point lead he had built coming into the AMSOIL Championship Snocross season finale in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, narrowing the gap to four points with two days of racing still in the balance.

Tremblay came back on Saturday winning both of his qualifying heats and finishing third in the main event to retain a two point lead going into the last day of competition.

Sunday's qualifiers were among the most intense races of the season and while he challenged for the wins, Tremblay ended up with two second place finishes. The ISOC scoring system awards six bonus points for heat race wins and when rival Kody Kamm swept his heats, it meant a 10 point deficit heading into the final.

"In the final I just put my head down," said Tremblay. I knew I had 10 points to gain, I gave it everything I had. I had a good jump but I ended up in second place. I had a consistent weekend, it's just too bad for Friday and that DNF. It was our championship to win but that's just part of racing. I'm really happy with our season and the team and we will be back next year."

Had it not been for the broken belt, Tremblay would have ended the season with a 13 point lead in the title fight.

Not to be lost in the emotion of the weekend was the performance of Lincoln Lemieux. Lemieux tailed Tremblay for much of Friday's final and ended up finishing second. He rounded out the event with a pair of fourth place finishes and secured the fourth spot overall in the championship.
