Lincoln Lemieux Keeps Win Streak Rolling At Canterbury Park

Hunter Patenaude Moves Up In Pro Lite Championship

Aurora, Minn. (January 7, 2019) - Lincoln Lemieux became the first Pro rider to score three AMSOIL Championship Snocross wins this season, with a victory on Friday night at Canterbury Park in Minnesota. Lemieux is now also the only Pro rider to win at least one main event in each of the three weekends of racing that have taken place during the 2018-19 campaign.

Lemieux is still working to find consistency in his qualifying heat races where bad luck has plagued him early on. However, once the lights come on for the night show, Lemieux has been a force and Friday's runaway win at round five was one of his most dominant performances yet.

Hunter Patenaude had another consistent outing in the Pro Lite division with a pair of heat race wins and a fourth place on Saturday, to advance one position to second overall in the championship.

Canterbury Park always draws the largest crowd of the season and this year was no exception as race fans from the Twin Cities metro packed the house on both nights of racing. Prior to the event, the team made appearances at two local high schools where we presented Race To The Future Scholarships to a student at each location.

The Scheuring Speed Sports team will have another two week break in the action before setting off on an almost non-stop stretch of racing that will carry on through the end of the season. During the break we will be working with sponsor Klim at our Klim Compound in Aurora, Minnesota.

The national tour resumes on January 25-26 in Deadwood, South Dakota.
