Top 5 Finishes Keep Team In The Chase

Aurora, MN (March 7, 2011) Robbie Malinoski tightened his hold on the number four spot in the Pro Open standings and remains just 18 points out of third after finishing fifth in the class final on Sunday.

In Pro Stock action, Malinoski made a last lap pass, racing his way to a fourth place finish. The result moved him within four point of the next rider in the standings and within reach of the number three spot with two events to go.

Semi-Pro rider Darrin Mees scored main event finishes of fifth and seventh over the two days and is in a heated points battle with the top three riders.

Hayward, Wisconsin is in the heart of snowmobile country and for the third straight year hosted an overflow crowd of vacationing trail riders. The event features a large vendor's row, where team partners Makita and the US Air Force were able to interact with fans.

Television coverage of the Hayward Powersports/Polaris National can be found on the Versus channel Sunday March 20, at 3pm EST.
