Tim Tremblay Closes The Season With Two Podiums

LAKE GENEVA, Wisc (March 18, 2013) Tim Tremblay pulled his best start of the season, on Friday, launching up the massive ski slope straight at the Grand Geneva resort and racing to a second place finish in the AMSOIL Pro Open class.

On Saturday, Tremblay started the day with great qualifying runs, earning a pair of second place finishes and setting himself up for his last shot at a class victory. In the main event Tremblay jumped out to a fourth place start, quickly moved into third and was up to fourth at the half way point of the 10 lap final.

In the closing laps, Tremblay bobbed one time on the downhill, sliding to third where he would finish for the night.

Robbie Malinoski rebounded for an eighth place finish on Saturday after getting turned over at the start of Friday's main event.

The team put in a full weekend in the greater Chicago area, making two school visits on Thursday to award our U.S. Air Force, Race To The Future Scholarship, as well as making a stop with sponsor Rockstar Energy Drink at the Great Lakes Naval Academy in Chicago.
