February 8-9, 2013

Tremblay Climbs Charts With Two Podiums

Aurora, Minn. (February 11, 2013) Tim Tremblay raced to second and third place finishes over the weekend to climb into a tie for second in the Pro Open title chase. Tremblay overcame his recent issues with traffic on the opening lap, getting great starts and positioning himself at the front of the pack both nights.

Darrin Mees followed Tremblay on Friday night, earning his second straight fourth place finish. Robbie Malinoski was not far off the pace in seventh on Friday.

On Saturday, Malinoski went 1-2 in qualifying but was caught out on the opening lap and had to race his way back up to a ninth place finish.

Traverse City, Michigan was a new venue for the AMSOIL Championship Snocross tour and was well received by the snowmobile community which is a major tourism destination. A large track and eight inches of fresh snow made for great racing and viewing which should contribute to this being a tour stop for years to come.

The tour will take a one week break before making its only east coast appearance in Seneca, New York on February 22-23. The team, however, is in route to Valcourt, Quebec, home of Ski-Doo snowmobiles and the historic Grand Prix de Valcourt beginning February 15.
