After consignee procures a buyer and consignor has approved the sale price for the vessel, consignor must provide consignee a good, clean, marketable title to said vessel within 7 days after the consignee has procured a buyer. Should consignor be unable to provide said good, clean, marketable title within the time frame set forth above, consignor will have to pay the consignee the appropriate commission as set forth above as if the sale had been made, plus expenses for storage, cartage, transportation, handling, and all expenses incident to those matters, including the cost of any advertising for the vessel.

Consignor agrees to keep the above said vessel fully insured, in the name of and for the benefit of the Consignor. Consignee is not liable for any lost of or damage that may occur to Consignor's vessel while in the custody of the Consignee.

Consignee agrees to sell Consignor's vessel at a price not less than the price to be established by the Consignor. Consignee agrees to pay the Consignor the net proceeds of the sale of the Consignor's vessel as soon as received by Consignee, such net proceeds deemed the gross amount of the sale less the reasonable charges and commission mentioned on page one of this Consignment Agreement.

It is agreed by the parties hereto that, from time to time, a test drive of the said vessel may be required by the prospective purchaser. During towing and/or this test drive, the Consignee is not responsible for any damage occurring to the trailer (including tire failure), the engine or the vessel itself.

This Agreement shall be governed by, constructed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Sate of Florida. Any litigation arising out of this contract, the parties agree jurisdiction will lie in Palm Beach County, Florida.

This Agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between the said parties. Any prior understanding to agreement of any kind proceeding that date of this Agreement shall not be binging on any party except to the extent expressly set forth in this Agreement.

Any modification of this Agreement or additional obligation assumed by either party in connection with this Agreement shall be binding only if evidence in writing and must be signed by each said parties or an authorized reprehensive of each party.

The parties agree to execute whatever papers and documents that may be necessary to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

If this contract is terminated by the Consignee before a sale is made, the Consignor will be charged $150.00 per month for storage and maintenance fee for the vessel. Also, a fee will be charged for any advertising and repairs that have occurred. (May be voided by manager) _____
