STINSON LEONARD STREET

At Stinson Leonard Street, our attorneys help clients develop sensible employment policies, manage sensitive workplace investigations and guide clients through emergency personnel situations. We offer a proven track record defending employers against employee lawsuits, and help clients decide whether the best course of action is early resolution through mediation or aggressive litigation.

Our employment litigators are effective courtroom advocates with substantial experience in bench and jury trials in state and federal court. We represent privately held businesses, local and national corporations, and nonprofit institutions with a range of litigation concerns, including discrimination, non-compete and trade secret counseling, labor relations, workplace harassment counseling, employee benefits, whistle-blower claims, tort and contract claims, OSHA matters, crisis media communications, alternative dispute resolution, arbitration, contract compliance and affirmative action.
