

PromptCare Acquires Hometown Oxygen, Expanding its Respiratory Services to the Southeast

New Providence, NJ – May 3, 2018 – The PromptCare Companies (“PromptCare” or the “Company”), a leading regional provider of respiratory and infusion services, announced today it has acquired Hometown Oxygen (“Hometown”), a provider of respiratory services throughout North and South Carolina. The acquisition will expand PromptCare’s service offering to the Southeastern United States. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Headquartered in Charlotte, NC, Hometown provides respiratory solutions primarily focused on pediatric patients with invasive vents. It serves nearly 1,100 patients from eight locations throughout North and South Carolina. Hometown CEO Scott Dinning is staying on as an executive.

“Bringing the Hometown team on board will allow us to expand our footprint to the Southeast, an integral part of our strategy,” said PromptCare CEO Tom Voorhees. “Scott and the Hometown team share our strong commitment to providing exemplary patient care to those we care for and we are excited to partner with them as we continue building our platform.”

“It is an honor and our mission to serve the most fragile among us,” said Mr. Dinning. “Hometown Oxygen’s core focus has been serving the Pediatric Ventilator population in North and South Carolina. Joining the PromptCare family of companies gives us the platform and the resources to continue to expand these services while continuing to provide hometown homecare in the communities we serve. Tom and the PromptCare team have an excellent reputation within the industry and I am very happy to have our team join PromptCare’s team as we continue our expansion in the Southeastern United States.”
