

FORCE FOR GOOD

Warm coats to those in need

December, 2016

Coats & Hot Cocoa

Jessica Ortiz, Jose Robles, and Ricardo Orellana chose to serve their community in San Francisco by volunteering in an outreach sponsored by All Souls Church where Ricardo attends. They began early morning setting up tables and preparing hot chocolate and fresh sweetbread to welcome the homeless and those in need from a nearby park. The team also gathered donations of warm coats to hand out to those less fortunate.

What a great opportunity to serve.

Thanks to everyone in the church, Barry Peterson, Steve Sargent, and the rest of the TK staff for donating coats. With the support of our TK team, we were able to make this day possible.

